Master of Accounting Overview

More than a Professional Accountant

The Master of Accounting programme at HKU Business School offers three streams: Accounting Analytics and Big Data, Financial Reporting, Analysis and Valuation, and Strategic Management and Corporate Governance which provide students the option to choose according to their interests and career aspirations. They may also consider double concentrating if there are any two they are particularly passionate about. Our comprehensive curriculum is accredited by ACCA, CPA Australia, CIMA and HKICPA, and students on this programme benefit from our professional partnership with ACCA and KPMG. The programme explores theories on the importance of accounting roles in executive decisions, preparing you to be professional accountants, financial experts and future business leaders.

Q&A

1. What is the most important element of learning for an accounting professional nowadays?
   It depends on the interests of the student. We cover several in-depth areas. In particular, our programme values leadership and analytic skills, as well as critical thinking. We would like students to become the future leaders of the profession.

2. What type of student is suitable to study the Master of Accounting Programme?
   Anyone who is interested in the accounting profession. We look for qualified students with intellect, a good command of English, a career vision in accounting and finance and the confidence and dedication to achieve excellence.

3. I already have a bachelor degree or background in accounting. Is it beneficial for me to study the Master of Accounting Programme?
   Another purpose of the programme is to establish cutting edge knowledge at an advanced level. Elective courses cover numerous accounting fields that bring you up to the graduate level. Accounting students will have course waivers and exemptions that allow them to leap to the advanced level. They may also take electives from other postgraduate programmes to enrich their knowledge.

4. I do not come from a business or commerce background, can I study the Master of Accounting Programme?
   The programme covers elements of basic accounting knowledge, making it suitable for non-business major students. The curriculum will be challenging for them, but well manageable given the guidance we give them.

5. Does the programme allow me to get practical insights from the industry?
   Our curriculum design is based on the most recent developments in the industry. There are also guest speakers and industry and career talks that bring about the latest developments. The curriculum has been updated over time to keep up with the latest global standards.

An Li (Alumni)
Associate, M&A Deals, PwC, Shanghai (Class of 2012)

I appreciate the hard work of the professors. All of them provided deep insights and sharpened our skills in accounting. Apart from that, some courses in the programme use unique teaching methods, which I think is impressive since it requires active participation from the students. Overall, although I am from accounting background, I think the learning experience is wonderful and I believe it is worthwhile joining the programme. The programme is quite challenging because of its tight schedule. That being said, I do not think you have to give up all your leisure time in order to have a good grade. Instead, conquer the difficulties. I think it is quite important to be organized and try to learn things efficiently. Work hard and play hard. In this way, you can find a study-life balance.

Chloe Li
Master of Accounting (Class 2023)

I really appreciate all of the professors in the programme. They are the experts in both academic and industrial areas. No matter what type of questions you have, like how to choose your future career path, or how can you improve your academic theories in reality, they are always willing and being patient to provide you with some professional insights. Besides, I also want to mention that HKM is a very excellent platform for studying. It provides many opportunities to learn more knowledge and practical skills, which are not only limited to the field of accounting. It helps me at helping students to discover more future potential.
