Life in Hong Kong
The HKU Business School provides a dynamic and conducive environment for learning, teaching and research. Advanced facilities are provided on the three campuses located in the HKU Main Campus, Cyberport and Admiralty Town Centre.

OUR CAMPUSSES

Cyberport Campus
Located at the flagship of Hong Kong’s digital industry - Cyberport. The School’s facilities at Cyberport include state-of-the-art classrooms, group meeting rooms and social areas for postgraduate students and learning partners from corporates that collaborate with the School. This is a place where university and business communities can come together and inspire innovations.

HKU Main Campus
The Headquarters of the HKU Business School is located at K.K. Leung Building in the HKU Main Campus. In addition to facilities such as lecture theatres, classrooms, computer laboratories and other areas for academic activities, the campus is also home to many research centres and institutes under the School. The Main Campus also features other learning facilities, resources and services needed in university life.

HKU Beijing Centre
Located in Asia Financial Centre where Asian Infrastructure Investment Bank is headquartered, HKU Beijing Centre mainly serves as a teaching venue for HKU Business School and provides ample space and state-of-the-art facilities for faculties to develop academic programmes, promote alumni entrepreneurial start-ups, and organise alumni events.

HKU-Tel Aviv Innovation Hub
The HKU-Tel Aviv Innovation Hub combines the academic excellence of HKU and the innovative, entrepreneurial energy of Israel. The Hub will foster deep engagements between the academic, business and technology communities of Israel, Hong Kong, and the Greater Bay Area, promoting cross-border collaborations and partnerships.

Shenzhen Campus
Located at the heart of Futian District in Shenzhen, the Shenzhen Campus is the School’s latest development to promote knowledge exchange, technology transfer and talent collaboration in the Greater Bay Area and Mainland China.

The Representative Office of The University of Hong Kong in Vietnam
HKU in Vietnam signifies the importance of Vietnam as a growing economy, her youth, talent, and key location. We strengthen connections with Vietnam by providing market-oriented research, superior learning experience, and instrumental resources.

HKU iCube
HKU iCube is in the prestigious Two Exchange Square featuring a magnificent harbour view. It serves as a place to facilitate knowledge exchange for HKU’s associates, as well as a bridge to connect business leaders in and outside the school.

Master of Finance in Financial Technology Overview

The financial sector is evolving rapidly in the digital era.

The HKU Business School Master of Finance in Financial Technology programme is jointly offered by three faculties: HKU Business School, the Faculty of Law, and the Faculty of Engineering. Our cutting-edge curriculum balances quantitative skills and visionary thinking, and applies techniques of big data, AI and natural language processing to analyse real-world financial projects. Students will also cover the legal aspects of FinTech, from cyber-security to data protection and smart contracts. There is a strong industry demand for MFinTech graduates, with career opportunities in commercial and investment banks, brokerage and investment firms, private equity and venture capital firms, FinTech startups, insurance companies, treasury departments of non-financial corporations, regulatory agencies, and consulting and accounting firms.

Interdisciplinary Programme

Brokerage and Investment Firms | Treasury Departments of non-Financial Corporations
Private Equity and Venture Capital Firms | Regulatory Agencies
FinTech Startups | Consulting and Accounting Firms

Dr. Rujing Meng
Programme Director - Master of Finance in Financial Technology

Q&A

Top 5 questions about the Master of Finance in Financial Technology programme, answered by our Programme Director Dr. Rujing Meng.

1. This master programme is very interdisciplinary. What are the other faculties involved?

   Led by the HKU Business School, the Master of Finance in FinTech programme features a strong multidisciplinary training, with courses jointly offered by the Faculties of Engineering and Law. Students are able to acquire cutting-edge technical skills and a broad understanding of potential legal, economic and societal impacts of FinTech and digitalisation.

2. What type of student is suitable to study the Master of Finance in Financial Technology?

   The programme is designed for those who are interested in the financial technology sector, as they would learn new competencies in new technologies such as big data, artificial intelligence and blockchain, etc. Students with computer science, engineering, mathematics, physics, statistics or science and technology-related disciplines are highly preferred. Graduates are expected to be technologically adept, business savvy and able to offer innovative solutions to finance-related industries.

3. Why did we revamp the FinTech Stream under the Master of Finance to Master of Finance in Financial Technology?

   Due to the upcoming importance of FinTech in the industry, we wanted to provide a more comprehensive structure to our students. With our faculty’s rich experience in delivering the FinTech education through the previous Master of Finance FinTech stream and collaborating with the Faculty of Engineering and Faculty of Law, the curriculum of this Master Programme enhances the learning experience, allowing our graduates to be more well-rounded in skills and expertise.

4. What is the difference between the Master of Finance and the Master of Finance in Financial Technology Programme?

   The Master of Finance in FinTech aims to nurture FinTech talents with quantitative and analytical skills as well as practical experience, by employing technological innovations in financial practices.

5. What are the job opportunities?

   The financial sector is evolving rapidly in the digital age. The onslaught of data and powerful computing power demands new thinking and continuous innovation. FinTech Startups and established companies have to adopt new ways of thinking and anticipate what will come next in response to this technology evolution. FinTech jobs are in high demand.

Student Experience Sharing

JACK ZHANG
Associate Assurance, PwC (Class 2022)
I have improved my problem-solving and self-learning skills throughout my one-year journey. Graduating as a pure business student, I was initially afraid that I couldn’t cope with the technical knowledge and skill sets. My experience afterwards proved me wrong. Professor Wang from my Advanced Financial Programming and Databases class led a coding drill like me on a wonderful adventure of Python packages applications with his unique charm in teaching, supportive attitude in debugging, and hand-by-hand coaching throughout the whole course. By learning about his recommended online channels and brainstorming with my peers, I managed to obtain huge takeaways from my coding projects.

JACKIE ZHONG
Master of Finance in Financial Technology (Class 2022)
I have been really into blockchain and cryptocurrency since 2017, and I knew HKU had a leading edge with their Financial Technology programme. Moreover, HK is an ideal spot to study FinTech as it has always welcomed new technologies with open arms. Therefore, I thought it was a good opportunity for me to gain a deeper understanding and have better development here.
I majored in Accounting during my bachelor’s and had very little experience in coding and programming, and this programme exposes students to quite a bit of programming, such as Python, Machine Learning, and Quantitative Trading. This was the main challenge I faced during my studies here as coding and programming are time-consuming and difficult. But, they are not impossible to learn and overcome. Our professors are also really kind and always willing to help, and my classmates offered valuable input and helped me numerous times as well. If you are looking to study the programme, be confident, brave and hard-working. That way, you will not only get through it but also learn a lot.

Hong Kong FinTech Landscape

Home to over 800 FinTech companies and over 3,500 start-ups, Hong Kong is one of the top cities globally for start-ups to rapidly scale-up. It is home to over 10 unicorn companies.

Top 10

In 2021, Hong Kong ranked in the top 10 of the world’s top technology innovation hubs outside Silicon Valley over the next four years.

Many world-renowned innovation laboratories have settled in Hong Kong, including:

- Standard Chartered’s xLabors, DBS Startup Exchange
- ING’s ING Hong Kong
- Intact Lab Hong Kong
- HSBC’s ABR Test and Development Innovation Lab
- HKEX Innovation Lab
- Bank for International Settlements (BIS)
- IBM Innovation Center
- Deloitte’s AsiaPacific Blockchain Lab
- PwC’s Emerging Technology Lab

In June 2021, the HKMA announced the “FinTech 2023” strategy to encourage the financial sector to adopt technology by 2025, and to promote the provision of fair and efficient financial services for the benefit of Hong Kong citizens and the economy.
